THE HEDGEHOG REVIEW

CRITICAL REFLECTIONS ON CONTEMPORARY CULTURE

in 2009!

Posing hard questions, pursuing knotty controversies, pushing intellectual discussions beyond their current impasses—The Hedgehog Review strives for both the breadth of the fox and the depth of the hedgehog. Each issue contains essays, book reviews, interviews, and bibliographic reviews written by leading scholars, including:

Kiku Adatto and Michael Schudson on Politics and the Media

Richard Bernstein and Ruth Levitas on Imagining the Future

Nicholas Wolterstorff and Abdulaziz Sachedina on Human Dignity and Justice

Cornel West and Adam Michnik on Intellectuals and Public Responsibility

Advertise to an audience of 3000 readers eager to hear your authors share their rich perspectives and insights.

Celebrating 10 Years of topics you care about by writers worth reading
